The California Police Athletic Federation wish to thank the biggest little city in the world –
Reno – for a terrific Games.

The first Western States Police and Fire Games were a huge success. Over 4,300 competitors along with their families and friends enjoyed the warm sun, friendly people and area attractions of the Reno/Sparks/Tahoe area of Nevada. There was something for everyone to enjoy in "America's Adventure Place".

The 2005 Northern Nevada Police and Fire Games Organizing Committee worked tirelessly for 2 years to make these Games a success. Gene LeBlanc, Executive Director, headed a team comprised of Mitch Glazner and Jeff Collins as Sports Directors; Richard Aguilar, Special Events; Cory Alan Forgue, Administrative Coordinator; Curtis Johnson and Gary Neilson, Logistics Directors; James Lopey, Communication and Security; Connie Weiman's team from Stockton, Registration; Dick Swinney, Results; Alan Tom, Medical; Jane E. Lowden, Merchandise Coordinator; Robin Pagni, liaison, City of Spark; Fred Riclesberger, liaison, City of Reno, along with Joe Drousseau, Mike Knapp, Rod Lenzora, Alan Van Guilder, Ron Gilchrist, and Mike Wright as Sports Managers.

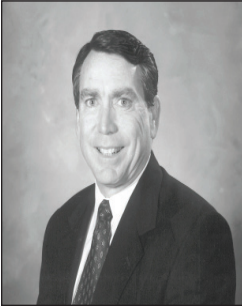

Hundreds of volunteers are necessary to run a Games as successfully as the 2005 Games were run and the CPAF would like to thank all the individuals who worked so many hours to bring the first Western States Police and Fire Games to Nevada.

To Jo Anne Hill, Event Manager, the CPAF Office Staff and Directors wish to extend a very special thank you. Her involvement in almost every aspect of the Games, proved invaluable.

2005 Western States Police & Fire Games Reno, Nevada

Dear Competitor,

The Federation Board of Directors extends our thanks and appreciation to the 2005 Games Organizing Committee for their efforts in hosting our first Western States Police and Fire Games. The Reno area was a great location, and the Host organization worked hard to produce a tremendously successful Games.

I am sure you realize that these Games require hundreds of volunteers to plan, organize, and stage an event of this size and magnitude; including competitor registration, venues, event coordination, officials, medical support, social activities, and much more. We all owe our thanks to the Reno/Sparks community, and especially those directly involved in the planning, organizing and presentation of the 2005 Western States Police and Fire Games for a successful and enjoyable event.

We return to Southern California and the beach city of San Diego for the 2006 Western States Police and Fire Games. Bring the family, and enjoy all the fun that San Diego has offer before and after your competition.

Sincerely,

Ed Hitchcock, President
Western States Police and Fire Games Federation

2006 WESTERN STATES POLICE & FIRE GAMES ITEMS OF INTEREST

IMPORTANT: The 2006 San Diego Host will NOT mail the Entry Book to every past competitor in our mailing list.
YOU MUST REQUEST A BOOK.

There are two other convenient ways in which you may enter, rather than requesting an Entry book.

1) Enter On-Line, using the Federation's On-Line Entry system (OLE). You do not need the Event Codes when you enter on-line. A new feature will display the pertinent sports information from the Entry Book on screen for your review and downloading. OLE entrants must pay by either Visa or MasterCard.

2) Enter by downloading the entry forms from our web-site. All materials from the Entry Book will be published at our web-site: www.cpaf.org. The Sports Information & Event Codes section will be posted in a downloadable format. You can print the Entry Form and Release of Liability forms to be completed and mailed.

If neither electronic options are helpful, feel free to request a book. MAKE SURE YOU INCLUDE YOUR NAME AND CURRENT MAILING ADDRESS. Please make your request by DECEMBER 15th. Contact the Federation office at 4info@cpaf.org, by phone at 858.571.9919 or in writing to: WSPFG Federation, PO Box 17398, San Diego CA 92111.
