The Western State Police and Fire Games Federation thanks the City of San Diego, the San Diego Police Department, and the San Diego Police Athletic Federation for their efforts in hosting the 2006 Western States Police and Fire Games.

These Games were first held in San Diego in 1967, known then as the California Police Olympics. In 2006 more than 4,700 participants joined by their families and friends enjoyed America's Finest City during the 40th year of competition in the Games.

The 2006 Western States Police and Fire Games Organizing Committee dedicated themselves to making the Games a success. Dan Ellison, Executive Director, headed a team comprised of Jason Jarrells, Dan Lasher and Larry Leiber as Sport Directors; Bob Schenkelberg, Logistics; Chappie Hunter, Hospitality; Ernie Encinas, Tom Bostedt and David Bautista as the Sports Committee; Tamara Kelleher, Operations Manager; Cheli Mohammed, Volunteer Coordinator; David Hardenberger, Medical; and Randy Hill, Planning.

Hundreds of volunteers were necessary to create the success of the 2006 Western States Police and Fire Games. The WSPFG Federation would like to express their sincere appreciation of the efforts of everyone who contributed to these Games.

2006 Western States Police and Fire Games
San Diego, CA

Dear Competitor,

The Western States Police and Fire Games Federation congratulate the San Diego Games Host Committee for a great time and a most successful 2006 Western States Police and Fire Games.

I would like to congratulate all the medal winners who are listed in this results book. And I want to congratulate all of our fellow firefighters and law enforcement officers who participated in these Games. I know it is a cliché, but it is true, everyone who competes is a winner. The fact that we have the opportunity to get together to test our physical skills and to develop lasting friendships with others from our professions is the true prize of the Western States Police and Fire Games.

The 2007 Games will be held in Mesa, Arizona from October 6 - 13, 2007. This will be the first time our Games have been held in Arizona, and we are looking forward to bringing them to this beautiful city in the Valley of the Sun. And to our 2006 Host, thanks San Diego for another great Games.

Sincerely,

Ed Hitchcock, President
Western States Police and Fire Games
