ABRIDGED RULES-BOAT ROWING-2022

SCHEDULE

Competition will be conducted in 1 race in each division with the 2 distances

- Day 1 Friday, July 29: Training teams and Instruction beginners
- Day 2 Saturday, July 30: Training teams and Instruction beginners
- Day 3 Sunday, July 31: Contest/Race Day

EQUIPMENT

LIFE BOATS (SLOOPS):

2 Types of rowing boats will be used:

- Kuikensloepen – Novice (Beginners) Events
- Zeegsloepen – Master Events

No other types of sloops will be allowed. Competitors may use their own rowing boat or use one that has been arranged by the organization. These must correspond to the prescribed boat type.

All boats will be equipped on board with:-

- Life jackets
- Oars
- First Aid Kit
- Fenders
- Mooring Lines

Allocation of Host supplied Boats will be by drawing lots.

GENERAL RULES

During scheduling of the heats or finals, the Host Sport Coordinator shall not allow a boat in any race that does not conform to all rules. For example: in the 2000 Meter 4 with coxswain, allowing only three oarsmen and a coxswain.

No boat will be placed in the water with a makeup team which has been assembled at the last minute to row "just for the fun of it" and was not properly registered prior to the first day of competition.
