GENERAL SPORTS RULES for Small Bore Rifle

Where conflicts between NRA rules and USPFC rules occur (i.e. awards formula, eligibility of competitors and substitution after competition begins), always use USPFC rules. (See General Sports Rules.)

CLASSIFICATION

USPFC RIFLE-SMALL BORE-2025

Small Bore Rifle shooters with a classification from a recognized shooting sports organization (RSSO) shall shoot in their classification for their discipline. Shooters without an RSSO classification shall be classified based upon scores they shot in USPFC matches, if available.

Small Bore Rifle shooters who have no classification will shoot in the individual “Unclassified” classification in accordance with USPFC Federation Rules. The classification gained in the “Unclassified” classification will be used for the competitor’s classification in the Team Event.

NOTE: A competitor may shoot one (1) classification higher than their current classification and must return to their assigned classification at the completion of the match. A competitor who does not participate in any matches for five (5) years may be reclassified to the next lower classification.
